

The very first Oktoberfest was on October 12th 1810. It was the wedding celebration of Prince Ludwig and Princess Therese. All of Munich's citizens were invited to this happy royal event in a big festival on the local fairgrounds. Today, the Oktoberfest is an important part of the Bavarian culture and held year after year now being the largest 16 days beer festival in the world. An extraordinary beer is brewed for this special occasion. Oktoberfest beer is a Märzen style, coppery in colour and full-bodied with a malt-accented finish and a mild hop profile. It exits with a final dryness. Enjoy this masterpiece of Bavarian brewing tradition all year round.
